

Indicative CGI of Falling Lane Project

SITE UPDATE | January 2026

We are pleased to share our latest newsletter reporting on the progress of 50 new homes under construction at Falling Lane.

We do hope everyone enjoyed the festive season.

We have completed demolition of the Yiewsley library, installed the piling platform and have now commenced works to install the piles into the ground on which the buildings foundations will be situated. We continue to score positively with all the various inspectors to site, both from a health & safety and quality of build perspective.

LOOKING AHEAD

With the piling rig commencing works to install the 334 No. piles we will then be looking towards the commencement of the groundworks phase.

The groundworkers will commence works to excavate around the piles and form the pile cap foundations.

Looking further ahead we will be setting up our site compound area and commence works to construct the new entrance to the development. We will deliver regular newsletters to the local residents.

As with all construction developments there will be times where noise and some disruption is inevitable however we will always endeavour to keep this to a minimum by any practical means.
